

Britney's baby shower!

Her next bundle of joy is getting everything she could possibly need!

Britney Spears can't stop smiling these days — and with good reason. She's about to give son Sean Preston, who turns 1 on Sept. 14, quite a birthday present: a baby sister!

"Brit's been saying she wants to be surprised, but Kevin found out the baby's gender when they had the ultrasound," confides a friend. "Now she's been buying a lot of girls' clothes. So I think she knows — or maybe she just has a feeling."

Brit's even got a name picked out for her princess already — but they're keeping it quiet, says the pal. "Kevin hasn't even told his mom. It'll stay under wraps until the baby is born."

And even though the friend tells Life & Style that Brit has no plans for an official baby shower, she's been shopping up a storm. "She loves it all," says the friend.

Last summer Britney had a Moroccan-themed baby shower for Sean Preston.

"Just like last time, presents will really start rolling in once she has the baby," a friend says. Lucky kid!
